Unity, and diversity to guide their work with Florida State faculty, staff, and students.

The Center for Leadership and Social Change offers a multitude of opportunities and resources to get involved with leadership, diversity, and service. For more information about these programs that focus specifically on Diversity, Leadership, and Service, visit HERE.

In addition, the Center also sponsors an Undergraduate Certificate in Leadership Studies, which is an 18-credit, interdisciplinary, multidimensional, and experiential program open to all FSU Undergraduate students. The Certificate program prepares students for leadership in multiple contexts and uses practical experience and service-learning projects to frame leadership learning within the context of social change. Upon completion, the Leadership Certificate appears on students’ academic transcript.

For more information about the Center for Leadership and Social Change, as well as ways to get involved, visit their website, or their newsletter: It’s About...

One of the featured programs that the Center facilitates is the Multicultural Leadership Summit, which focuses on a foundation of knowledge that will enhance student success in leadership in the areas of multiculturalism and social justice. (See flyer below)

Career Corner

The Career Center is open Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday from 9:00 AM- 4:30 PM, and Tuesday from 9:00 AM to 8:00 PM, located in the Dunlap Success Center.

An important part of the college experience is discovering who you are. To find majors and occupations that fit, meet with a Career Adviser at The Career Center to explore your interests, values, and skills. Access more than 3,000 resources in The Career Center Library to learn more about different opportunities, or participate in one of the following activities to begin your path to career success:

* Make an initial selection of your major using Career Center resources and the FSU Academic Guide, or choose the Exploratory major if you need additional time or support with this decision.

* Meet with your Academic Advisor to review your plan to complete liberal studies and prerequisite requirements for your major.

* Attend the Student Success Conference, co-sponsored with Advising First, and participate in workshops ranging from stress management to creating your brand at FSU.
* Enroll in SDS 3340: Introduction to Career Development, and take the first steps towards career decision-making and development.

* Thinking about the next step? Attend the Graduate and Professional School Fair, and gain information on the application process and admissions requirements.

Experiential Learning Programs:
Students can earn recognition for engaging in experiential learning opportunities. Please remind students that The Career Center is accepting applications for both the Experiential Recognition Program (ERP) and Experiential Certificate Program (ECP) for SPRING 2015. Encourage your students to visit our webpages listed below for detailed information on each Experiential Learning program:

- ERP: The Experiential Recognition Program (ERP) is a virtual course that facilitates eligible FSU degree-seeking students the opportunity to earn transcript notation for engaging in experiential learning opportunities.
- ECP: The Experiential Certificate Program allows all FSU degree-seeking students the opportunity to earn recognition for engaging in experiential learning opportunities.

Students must be enrolled in ERP and ECP during the same semester they complete an internship and submit the program application prior to the close of the official DROP/ADD period-JANUARY 12th 2015. Students must apply through SeminoleLink HERE. Students should log into their account, click on Profile>>Experiential Learning>>then add new experience.
