#CivilityWeek 2014
September 2 - 6!
One Book / One Campus is The Florida State University's first-year shared-reading program. The initiative is designed to engage new students in critical reading and reflection and engage them in community dialogue with faculty, administrators, and their peers as soon as they arrive on campus.

It is a University expectation that all new students will read the book after they receive a copy at orientation. Discussions, course assignments, and other activities centered around the book's themes and information will be introduced into the freshmen year - supporting critical thinking and college success.

Please read more about the program at http://nsfp.fsu.edu/One-Book-One-Campus. We are in the beginning stages of the planning for the 2015 One Book / One Campus program and would like to gather nominations from you! Please email the name of the book, author, brief overview of the book, and why you would like to submit it for consideration to fye@admin.fsu.edu by October 1, 2014.

Thank you for taking the time to provide nominations!
