

The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities

Advisor Form

<http://dos.fsu.edu/srr/>

The Student Conduct Code affords all students involved in the University student conduct process the right to an advisor. The term "advisor" means any one person chosen by the charged student or the alleged victim to assist him/her throughout the disciplinary process. Regardless of who a student chooses to advise him/her, the advisor cannot speak for a student in the hearing unless authorized by the hearing body. However, a student may consult with his/ her advisor at any time during the hearing. This consultation must take place in a manner that does not disrupt the proceedings. If an attorney is to be the advisor, the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities shall be notified two class days prior to the hearing.

Please complete the requested information below if you are planning to have an advisor. This form must be submitted to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities at least two class days prior to the hearing.

Your full name:
Your phone number:
Your email address:
Your physical address:
Advisor name:
Advisor phone number:
Advisor email address:
Your relationship with advisor:
Is your advisor licensed to practice law?

I will be accompanied by an advisor during my participation in the University student conduct process. I have shared information about the hearing process with my advisor including information about the role of the advisor. I understand that my advisor cannot speak for me unless authorized to do so by the hearing body. I further understand that if my advisor does not adhere to his/her defined role, he/she may be removed from the hearing. I certify that the above information is correct, and that I have read and understand the terms of this agreement.

_____
Signature

_____
Date